Thanks for contacting Facebook's press office. We know you might be on deadline, so we'll do our best to get back to you as soon as possible. Not a member of the press? Try our Help Center if you're experiencing any of the following issues:

- My account is locked
- I want to block someone
- I'd like to remove a post
- I forgot my password
- I want to change my password
- I think my account has been hacked
- I want to report content on Facebook

The Facebook Newsroom is also a great resource where you will find the latest press releases, photos and b-roll, key company facts, a timeline of Facebook's history, and other news-related items.

If none of this describes what you're looking for, try our general Help Center<<https://www.facebook.com/help/>> or consider posting in our Community Forum, where thousands of other people on Facebook are answering and asking questions.

Other resources for:

- * Advertisers: If you're an advertiser or are interested in advertising on Facebook, take a look at our Advertising on Facebook center
- * Brands: For information about brand permissions questions related to Facebook trademarks and copyrights for commercial and promotional purposes, see what our Brand Resources page can help you with
- * Sponsorship: For sponsorship request information, you can contact us here

Thank you,
The Facebook Communications Team
